

6516205552.txt

As a new listener to XM Radio I really appreciate the local Washington DC traffic and weather. This service is extremely valuable in that it offers a higher quality, commercial free way to access the required information quickly. I have made the choice to subscribe to XM and should not be denied the availability of local programming.

I am also a user of DirectTV, how is their offering of local station different than the content that XM is offering? I don't see any...